MJETS WELCOMES RICHARD WOLFSKEIL ON BOARD AS ITS FIRST AOG MANAGER

Bangkok, February 2011 – MJETS, Thailand’s leading private jet operator, is pleased to announce the appointment of Richard Wolfskeil as its first-ever AOG Manager, adding mobility and reinforcing the company’s commitment to providing the region’s aircraft owners, operators, and OEMs with a comprehensive range of technical support services.

Making the move from Metrojet in Hong Kong to Mjets in Bangkok, Thailand, Wolfskeil brings over 30 years of industry experience, offering maintenance expertise on a wide range of executive aircraft under his care, including all models of Gulfstream, Bombardier, Falcon, and others.

“Richard’s wealth of experience, technical abilities, and management skill will allow MJETS to move forward to the next level of AOG service,” said MJETS CEO Mark Thibault, adding that “the decision to add this mobile support capability is aimed at making MJETS more responsive to the needs of its clients, wherever they may be.”
